history of dance in Ontario: The first public performance of dance in Ontario was in 1851 at the King's Theatre in the Town of York. It was choreographed by Robert Chalmers, dance mistress of Princess Alice of Wales. The first bona fide dance company ever in Ontario was formed at Queen's University in Kingston in 1895 under the direction of Professor Morris G. Henderson. The company eventually won a silver medal at the Montreal Exposition of 1909. In 1891, the first ever dance instructor in Ontario was hired by the Ontario School of Agriculture in Guelph. In 1892, the first public examination of dance was held.
